FROM OUR SPONSORS

It is great to see the underage GAA players out training and starting to play competitive games again.

We have been through the most difficult time any of us has ever seen and hopefully we are starting to come out on the other side and have a lot to look forward to. I always look forward to the start of the underage competitions every year and while we are still trying to finish up 2020 competitions and get the 2021 competitions underway, it is great for the players, mentors, parents and supporters to have the prospect of great games, camaraderie and sportsmanship to look forward to.

Best of luck to all involved and especially to the referees and officials who give up huge amounts of time and effort, and without whom the games could not happen.

Thanks to Brian and Coiste Mionúir an Mhí who have worked tirelessly to get the competitions for 2020 completed and the 2021 competitions underway. I am delighted to be asked to sponsor these competitions and look forward to presenting the trophies to the winners, but remembering that you are all winners as far as I, and all GAA supporters, are concerned. Best of luck to all!

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

Ray Finnegan

A chairde, Ba mhaith liom fáilte a ra don gach duine chun na cluiche ceannais seo inniu.

It gives me great pleasure to welcome everyone here today for what will hopefully be a celebration of all that is good in hurling in our much delayed finals.

We have waited a long time for these finals and I wish each team and player the very best of luck in their finals. You all deserve your day and I have no doubt you will all do your clubs proud.

It is strange to have the finals at the beginning of the season but that makes the finals no less important.

To parents, coaches, covid officers and officials; thank you. It has been a hard 15 months but we are back and hopefully here to stay this time.

Thanks to our sponsor, O'Reilly and Co Solicitors for their support.

Thank you to Aoibhín Rainsford who will sing Amhrán na bhFiann at our finals in Navan on Wednesday

AN FEAR UASAL

Last February a cloud of great sadness fell over Donaghmore Ashbourne GAA community when the news of the death of a true gentleman and great club member Dónal Ó Loingsigh began to filter around the village. Poor Dónal passed away after a short and brave battle with illness leaving behind his wife Síle, daughter Doireann, son Fiach, son in law Dónal, daughter in law Fi and grandchildren Eleanor, Hugh, Siun and Darrach together with his extended family and a large community of friends.

Originally from Baile Bhuirne in the West Cork Gealtacht, Dónal was a proud Cork man and always flew the Rebel's flag. He followed the 'Blood and Bandage' of both the footballers and hurlers on every possible occasion with pride and passion. Outside his family Dónal had a huge love for the small ball and was an ever-present driving force for hurling in Donaghmore Ashbourne since his arrival in Ashbourne. He was a consistent promoter of the game from Acorn level right up to adult level and even when things were not going so well within the code Dónal's drive and persistence ensured that we got through the tough times by ensuring that lads kept playing and hurling continued. Dónal made it work with his drive and passion and ability to get people on board and not take the easy option and give up.

He was very well respected with the wider GAA Hurling community in Meath and this was very much evident with the tributes that were posted on social media at the time of this death.

His other love was that of the Irish Language and Dónal had the most beautiful way of promoting the language whenever he could. He had a great ability to make people conformable with whatever level of Irish one had. If you wanted to have a full conversation or only had a cúpla focal, he treated you with respect and appreciated that you're trying to use what you had. His warm character never made people feel conscious about that they did not know as he encouraged them to use what they did. Outside his role with the hurlers, Dónal always gave as much as he could to the club. He was a member of the stewards committee, grounds committee, Executive member and was a driving force for the GAA's cultural arm, the Scór competition. A quiet and pleasant man, who always met you with a smile and the open hand of friendship. He was quiet spoken and never raised his voice or showed aggression. But he was no push over and was well able to stand up for his beliefs and could make his point at meetings eloquently without any aggression or intimidation. He had a great ability to get his point across in a quiet way and he could bring people along and get things done. Such was his warmth it was hard to refuse Dónal on the rare occasion he did ask for help.

He was an extremely dedicated and respected primary school teacher and was a founding member of the teaching staff of Scoil an tSeachtar Laoch in Ballymun. He was one of the four original teachers when they first opened in 1973 and later became principle during his career there. In fact, Síle also served on the teaching staff there and now Doireann continues their teaching legacy in the school. Again the tributes that were posted by the Ballymun community showed the love and respect they had for this true gentleman. Those of us who were lucky enough to have Dónal enter our lives are the richer for our experience.

IMPACT ON GAELIC GAMES IN MEATH

COVID-19 has had a major effect on all aspects of life since March 2020, especially fundraising for all types of organisations, and Meath GAA are no different.

To date, we have lost our normal annual events such as Fairyhouse Race Day and the Knightsbrook Golf Classic in 2020 and most likely 2021 as well. This leads to ever-increasing pressure on our financial situation
